5th ICC Mutual Fund Summit 2012

ICC Mutual Fund Summit 2012 - The Success of the Previous Mutual Fund Summits has encouraged ICC to drive the initiative forward to its 5th edition on a far bigger scale. Mutual Fund Industry in India has undergone radical transformation in the last one and the half years. A host of regulatory changes primarily aiming to protect interest of the small investor community has had considerable repercussions on the industry as a whole ; which is heavily dependent on institutional investment. While the effect of this might be off -putting for the industry in the short run, regulators claim business in the long run will be much benefited due to the enhanced customer loyalty and the trust that the measures promise to generate.

The period represents an exciting time for the industry players as the regulatory incursion is liable to embark upon a paradigm shift in the ethos and principles on which the industry has been run so far. The Conference is designed with the primary objective of analyzing the Mutual Fund Industry, its present scenario as well as its prospects and challenges especially in the context of the existing regulatory framework The Conference promises to be highly promising in terms of its coverage and participations. The topics for discussions have been chosen after meticulous inspection and analysis of the Indian Financial Market. The Approach of the Summit would be both extensive as well as intensive involving a large number of stake holders. Aply supported by AMFI the initiative is primarily aimed at providing a clear road map for the industry through a series of meaningful deliberations to be undertaken throughout the day. This apart with participation of delegates in large numbers, the Summit promises to provide outstanding networking opportunities, branding and visibility to all its Partners & Sponsors.

The 5th ICC Mutual Fund Summit 2012 would witness participation of eminent Speakers and Dignitaries from various AMCs, Regulatory Bodies, and Associations.

We would be grateful if you could kindly participate in this Conclave as a delegate and also nominate others from your organization as Participants. As a delegate, you will be able to take part in the valuable deliberations and will also have a great networking opportunity with very senior Corporates, which would definitely create new avenues of business and investment.
