

ICC-ANZIBA MoU.10TH May, NEW DELHI.

ICC and ANZIBA (Australia, New Zealand & India Business Association) have joined hands to work closely to

- Provide a forum for companies, organisations and individuals with active business interests between Australia, New Zealand and India to exchange views, experiences and network.
- Promote the commerce and economy of India by enabling entrepreneurs from Australia, New Zealand and India to exchange views and experiences.
- Update members on recent and relevant legislative and regulatory developments in Australia, New Zealand and India.

Occasion was a Seminar on 'Opportunities in Defence Sector' at the New Zealand High Commission, which saw the coming together of ICC and ANZIBA to sign off the MoU. Her Excellency Ms. Joanna Kempkers, New Zealand High Commissioner, gave the opening address followed by presentations by Ex-Defence personnel & Experts viz., Admiral Pradeep Chauhan, Major Gen.P.K. Siwach, Col. UdayDadwal, Commander Gautam Nanda deliberated on the opportunities in Indian Defence Sector.

Vikram Gera- President, ANZIBA, said it's an auspicious day for ANZIBA as it joins hands with ICC and signs the MoU. Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Rajeev Singh, Director General, ICC, said that the sessions were informative and quite enlightening. He also added that the joint effort of ICC and ANZIBA will go a long way in enhancing the trade & industry among the 3 countries.

The MoU was signed by Dr. Rajeev Singh from ICC and Vikram Gera from ANZIBA.

The Seminar was attended by Members of the New Zealand High Commission, Leonie Muldoon, the Senior Trade & Investment Commissioner of the Australian Trade and Investment Commission and members of ANZIBA.